ANNUAL PUBLICATION, CHARLOTTE COLLEGE
CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA

F O R E W O R D

On January 17, 1957, Charlotte College celebrated its tenth anniversary. We, the students who are now a part of OWL LAND, remember the occasion with feelings of pride and determination. That night "we took our hats off to the past." We remembered the beginning—an extension of the University of North Carolina to educate an overflow of veterans.

We remembered the growth—a two year junior college accredited by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction to provide college for hundreds of yearning men and women.

We played our parts in the present—Charlotte College, a real college in spirit—"the spirit of pioneers, pioneers building a college, a college to provide pioneers to build our nation!"

"We took our coats off to the future"—four years of college, buildings and grounds, classes day and night. January 1957—A DREAM! January 1967—A REALITY!

STUDENT COUNCIL

The 1956-1957 politics at Charlotte College were interesting and successful. The STUDENT COUNCIL of Charlotte College was confronted with many problems; we are happy to state that each and every problem was met and solved—efficiently and expeditiously. The "Big E" party under the leadership of Bill Henson fulfilled almost all of the promises that it made to the students; the "Big E's" campaign motto was: "Vote Big E for a better C. C."

The Student Council members of 1956-1957 can look back upon a year filled with excitement. They helped Charlotte College celebrate her tenth anniversary, they saw enrollment of the college reach an all time high, they promoted the student interest of and in Charlotte College to an all time high.

Mrs. Edyth F. Winningham was the faculty adviser to the Student Council and much of its success and progress must be attributed to her. Mrs. Winningham's advice and encouragement kept all legislation in the proper channels; her charming personality added much to the pleasant atmosphere of the new Student Lounge in which the meetings were held.

The Student Council can be proud of its achievements; it has laid the groundwork upon which future student governments can build. The Student Government of 1956-1957 planned for future years because it believed in Charlotte College. May the students that follow keep up the good work.

It has been the goal of the 1956-57 Si Si staff to collect the most memorable events of the school year, and to present them so that in future years this annual will help each student to relive his nights at Owl Land. The Si Si staff has worked long and weary hours to make the dream come true. At times the going has been rough, but most of the time it has been fun. With the formation of many new club groups, the celebration of our tenth anniversary, and the election of Mr. and Miss Charlotte College, our annual has experienced growing pains. The afternoons of planning, the 8:00 to 10:00 sessions at school, and the night and day sessions during the WEEKEND will be remembered by all the staff. The Business staff, under the supervision of Mr. Higgins, has reached its goal. The Editorial staff has worked diligently. A special thanks is given to Miss Mary Denny for her assistance with the proofreading. Gracias to Mrs. Hoyle for her encouragement.

Just as Charlotte College has reached a peak in its growth and development, the Si Si staff believes that THE 1956-57 Si Si has attained a new peak.

THE CHARLOTTE COLLEGIAN

The Charlotte Collegian is "the newspaper voice of Charlotte College." It is a newspaper that is reborn each year under new leadership. The purposes of the Collegian are to encourage worthy school activities, to promote scholarship, and to record the history of the school.

The editors and the staff of the 1956-57 Collegian did an excellent job. In line with the overall progress of Charlotte College, the Collegian enlarged its staff and presented a larger and better coverage of the school activities—in a larger paper—to the students, alumni, and friends of Charlotte College.

The editors of the 1956-57 Collegian predict that the Collegian will continue to grow and expand its services in future years because they believe that the Charlotte Collegian will always be: "A group of students interested in Charlotte College who hope to help change what should be changed; solidify what should be left alone; and, record the history of the school in an interesting manner." They also feel that the Charlotte Collegian is, "A newspaper written not by the editors, but by the staff; a newspaper whose news is made by the students of Charlotte College."

The Writers' Club was born to Service and School Spirit in February 1957. With the Collegian and St Si as godparents, it is proud of its heritage and challenged by the expectations of its parents and friends. It must discover and develop talent sufficient to provide a genuine support for its founding organizations and to produce quarterly a literary magazine. Critical analysis and reports on great works, as well as the creative writing of short stories, essays, plays, and poems, are among the club's activities. Its youthful ambition is further aroused by plans for working co-operatively with the Dramatics Club and student broadcasts, and of finding means for promoting scholarship. It should soon enjoy the honor of becoming a chapter in the national literary fraternity, Sigma Upsilon. Membership is by invitation which is issued at the consent of all members on the basis of interest and ability.

CHARLOTTE COLLEGE CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Believing that the words of Christ, "I am the way, the truth, and the life," can be realized in a literal sense, the Bible Study Fellowship came into being. The aim and purpose of this group is, through the study of the Bible, to seek to enrich and deepen the reality of their faith in Christ. However, it is believed that a life of faith is exemplified by the actions of those who profess to be partakers of the faith. Therefore, this group realizes that man's spiritual nature underlies the entirety of his being and that when this spiritual nature rests on the foundation of Christ, life and its intended fullness is achieved.

The Charlotte College Chorus was organized this year with Mr. Harvey Woodruff, director, and Mrs. Marion Hood, accompanist. Meeting every Friday night from eight until nine thirty the group has enjoyed the fun of singing together. They have presented a Thanksgiving program and Spring singing. Plans are being completed for the Chorus to furnish the graduation music.

CHORUS

The addition of the Chorus has added much to the atmosphere of Charlotte College.

THE RADIO WORKSHOP

In order to extend the voice of Charlotte College over a wider area, The Radio Workshop was formed in September of 1956. Our slogan and the standard by which we judge our programs is that our listeners must be able to "Listen and Learn."

The Workshop serves a dual purpose; it not only educates the public about Charlotte College but it also educates the students in radio production.

Listener interest has been good but varied; comments about the program have been received from over a hundred miles away.

Although the Workshop is the newest of student committees, it extends a friendly voice and an open hand to the general public.

The Owls of 1956-57 withdrew from the Junior College Conference and joined the Jack Love League.

The Owls had keen competition from the other teams of the league, but they used their speed and conditioning to offset the experience of the former college players who comprised the nucleus of the other teams.

The one-two scoring punch of the Owls—Jerry Gaudet and Bradford Mills—were ably assisted by Larry Powell, Bill Mill, and Don Metler.

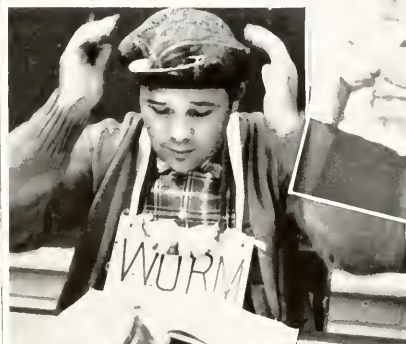

Adding strength and support to the starting five were Guards Walt Ferris and Joe Cowhig; Forwards Jack Lannin and Charles Couch; and Centers Wilse Wallace and John Christman.

Much of the Owls' success must be credited to the coaching of Buddy Smith, who guided the Owls to one of their most productive seasons.
